Twain Harte Community Services District values your partnership...

Your support makes all the difference!

Thanks to the generosity of neighbors like you, Twain Harte’s parks and recreation facilities remain among the best in the County. Your donation helps us continue making improvements that everyone can enjoy—today and for years to come.

What makes our Park and Recreation facilities special?

Our facilities provide the perfect space for everything from daily sports and recreation to emergency shelter—offering a place to relax, play, connect, and feel safe. They’re also the heart of our community, hosting events like Concerts in the Pines, Twain Harte à la Carte, Rotary BBQ, Pickleball Tournaments, and many more!

The tennis courts were upgraded to a hybrid clay surface that is safer and better to play on at higher elevations. It also extends the life of the courts.

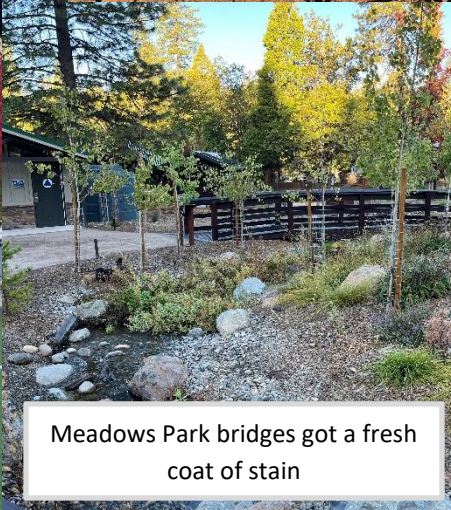

Community Christmas Tree install at Meadows Park

The pickleball courts were reinforced with a new concrete base for playability & longevity.

Bocce courts were leveled with new turf installed and pergolas stained.

Meadows Park bridges got a fresh coat of stain

Umbrellas were installed on the tables in Meadows Park to provide shade.

Looking for the perfect place to host your next party, celebration, or community event? The District's facilities offer beautiful, convenient spaces for gatherings of all kinds! Serve up some fun on our new clay tennis courts and then head over to Meadow's Park and enjoy gathering with friends.
